

30 June 1950

Mr. Henry D. Lytton
7 West 44th Street
New York 18, New York

Dear Mr. Lytton:

Admiral Hillenkoetter has directed me to thank you for making available to us the enclosure to your letter of 28 June 1950, which will be of interest to our Economic people.

As to the advisability of applying for a copy-right on your term paper, it is not the policy of this Agency, due to security regulations, to comment on studies produced by private individuals.

It is regretted that more favorable action cannot be taken upon your request.

Sincerely,

Sgd - disp via ER 30 June 50
